

Party Pony & Friends LLC - Safety Rules

- I take the safety of my pony and guests very seriously.
- The weight limit maximum for all riders is 65 pounds for the pony
- No unauthorized persons are allowed on pony.
- No hitting, slapping, or pulling tail or mane of pony.
- No double riding.
- No running along, after or in the path of pony.
- No rough housing, playing with balls or flying objects, squirting water guns, fireworks, popping balloons or other loud and startling sounds are allowed around pony (squeals and laughter are always okay!).
- No eating or drinking while on pony. Hands must be completely free to hold on to horn of saddle.
- All toddlers must hold an adult's hand when near pony.
- All riders must be wearing closed toe shoes and undergarments. All clothing must be dry.
- All riders must be able to hold themselves up unaccompanied. No infants. Sitting on pony for pictures is allowed during picture time.
- Parents or a responsible adult must be present and walking along when child is riding pony.
- Petting the pony is encouraged but is only allowed if he is stopped and has no rider.
- Any guest with a disability must have a doctor's release to ride as the jarring of a pony's gate may cause harm to the guest. A medically trained adult must always be present and have hands on the guest, while riding.
- Guests having tantrums/fits must quickly be removed from Pony Area until they achieve a calm state.
- Any guest who will be in proximity of the pony at the event must be intellectually able to follow, emotionally willing to follow, and physically capable of following directions in English. Any guest without the ability or willingness to follow directions when told the first time must be accompanied at all times by an adult who will take on the responsibility of anticipating and preventing any unacceptable, reckless or hazardous behavior and must be physically capable of removing such guest from the pony area without delay, if necessary.

These rules have been carefully considered not only for the safety of my pony and the guests, but to also ensure there are no misunderstandings, which could turn a happy and enjoyable event into something stressful and unpleasant.

Thank you for reading, understanding, and following these rules to ensure a wonderful experience for everyone!

I agree to abide by and make my child aware of all safety rules provided by Party Pony & Friends LLC.
